

GQ Connect

For Integrating GoldMine and QuickBooks

GQ Connect, a new software application from The Marks Group PC, provides simple and seamless integration between GoldMine Premium and QuickBooks Enterprise.

The problem with many small and mid-sized businesses is that there's too much duplicate data. In too many places. With no integration. GQ Connect solves this problem.

Designed from the ground-up by the developers at The Marks Group PC, a certified QuickBooks and GoldMine partner, this simple application helps improve productivity and reduce errors.

The software is quick to install and works immediately. Once running you'll no longer have to switch between applications to discover critical contact and invoice information.

And best of all, the application is completely customizable in case you'd like to expand its capabilities. We're always available to help you do this.
